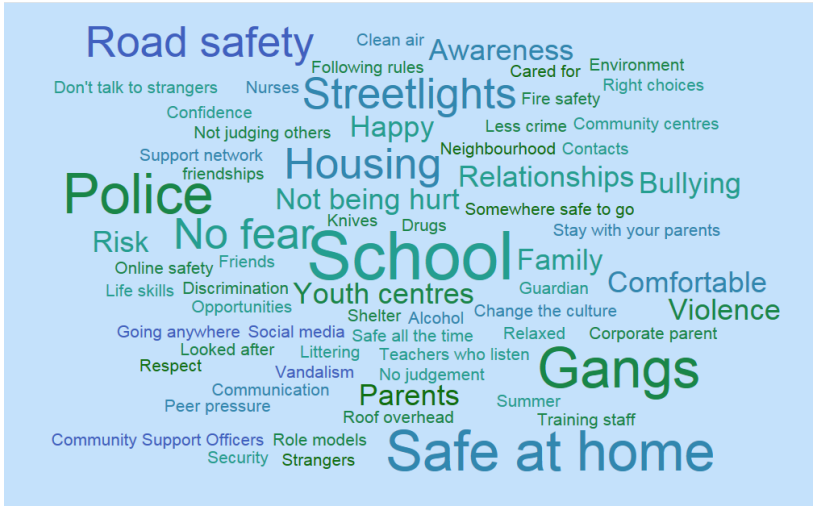
What do our ambitions mean to children and young people?

Our engagement activity focused on discussions of the four ambitions of the Lambeth Children and Young People's Plan: that all children and young people are healthy, safe, and resilient and that they achieve. The key messages are visualised below, with the most consistent themes in larger font:

Children and young people are safe



Children and young people are healthy

Children and young people achieve

Children and young people are resilient

What do our ambitions mean to parents?

Children and young people are safe

Children and young people achieve

Children and young people are resilient
